

CHOIR DIRECTOR JOB SPEC

We are looking for an enthusiastic Choir Director to join the team at Left Bank Leeds and steer the development of Left Bank Vocal Collective. The group meets on Monday evenings with an average of 14 attending each week to sing a capella in the beautiful Left Bank Leeds.

The group started almost four years ago and has grown in confidence and repertoire in that time. This role has great scope to take the group in a new direction, review the rehearsal schedule, work with our Marketing Manager on a recruitment campaign, identify performance opportunities and potentially host a choir festival.

Left Bank Leeds is a multidisciplinary arts venue set in an amazing Grade II* listed former church building. Our mission is to preserve our amazing venue in order to inspire and empower our community via a sustainable programme of arts and events that promote creativity, connection and wellbeing.

We are looking for someone who shares our values and is able to welcome members to our inclusive choir. We welcome applications from talented young directors as well as experienced musicians.

KEY DUTIES

- Lead Left Bank Vocal Collective.
- Work with colleagues to incorporate the choir into our programme.
- Work with the Marketing Manager on a recruitment campaign to grow the group.
- Work with the steering group who support all aspects of the choir and support the director with running the group

TERMS

- 2 hours on a Monday evening plus prep time.
- Paid £60 a session.
- Start date ideally 22 January 2018 but this can be negotiated.
- To be reviewed in November 2018.
